

Project #1 Proposal

Arthur Labeca and Thiago Silva

In this first project, we would like to implement a packet sniffer in C++. The idea is to create a program where we can see the packets in the network. In this project we want to better our knowledge in computer networks and our programming skills.